The information on your Student Aid Report indicates that you are currently in the process of applying for OR you have received a Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) discharge. Receiving additional federal student aid may affect your eligibility for a TPD discharge. If you have already received a TPD discharge, you must meet additional eligibility requirements to receive further federal student aid. Depending on when you received a TPD discharge, receiving additional federal student aid may affect your ability to keep your discharge.

I, _____, acknowledge that any Federal Student
(Printed Student Name)
Aid that I receive at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville during the 2018-2019 academic year cannot later be discharged for any present impairment unless it deteriorates so that I am again totally and permanently disabled.
