2015-2016
SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCE APPEAL INSTRUCTIONS

Financial aid eligibility for the 2015-2016 academic year is calculated based on the information you provided on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The income and asset information that you submitted was evaluated by a formula called Federal Methodology as set by Congress. This formula assumes that 2014 income is a good predictor of the family's financial strength during the student's 2015-2016 enrollment. Based on this assumption, financial aid eligibility is determined using 2014 tax return information.

The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships at the University of Tennessee recognizes that many families have changes in income or family situations that cannot be reflected in the 2014 tax return data. Therefore, it is possible for students to appeal their financial aid eligibility if they have unique financial circumstances.

A Special Circumstances Appeal may be filed if you have extenuating circumstances, which you believe warrant a reevaluation of your financial aid. Circumstances may include, but are not limited to:

- Loss or change of employment
- Loss or change in amount of child support, Social Security, or other benefits
- Divorce or separation of parents or spouse
- Death of parent(s) or spouse
- Unusual medical expenses (not covered by insurance)
- One-time taxable income used for life changing events (e.g. IRA, pension distribution, back-year Social Security payments)
- Student's parent has retired

Circumstances that are NOT considered as extenuating include, but are not limited to:

- Standard living expenses (e.g. utilities, credit card payments, children’s allowances, etc.)
- Mortgage payments
- Car payments
- Credit card or other personal debts
- Vacation expenses
- All other discretionary expenses

All appeals require Tax Return Transcripts for student and parent (if student is dependent) along with W-2’s and/or 1099’s used to complete the tax return. You may obtain a tax return transcript by going online to www.irs.gov or you can call the IRS at 1-800-908-9946 and follow the prompts to request a Tax Transcript for 2014. We are unable to accept copies of 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ forms.

Please allow 3 to 4 weeks processing time from the time all documentation has been submitted. Notification of the decision by the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships will be sent to your UT e-mail address. All decisions made by the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships concerning special circumstances are final. If you have questions, please contact the One Stop Express Student Services at (865) 974-1111.
